Sir

With reference to your letter No L 3385/M1 189-32-2 dated 12th November 1932 requesting me to intimate the procedure adopted in this City in shifting temples and other places of worship from their existing position to other places, I have the honor to state that the temple called "Deval Mahakali" referred to in your letter was got removed by the Palace Department after constructing a new temple outside the Fort Another temple which was called "Amala Devathamma's temple" and which was inside the Fort was acquired in the usual way under the City of Mysore Improvement Regulation and was shifted to the new temple constructed by the Board out of the Compensation amount

2 A portion of the mosque situated in Chamaraja road which was required for widening the foot path was acquired by mutual agreement under Section 22 of the City Improvement Regulation in the year 1927-1928 In this case, with the consent of the Mosque authorities an ornamental compound wall, a pond, a flush latrine and three shops recently converted into a School were constructed by the Board for the Mosque at a cost of Rs 3,011/- in lieu of money compensation

3 Generally, in all cases of acquisition of places of worship, the properties acquired were being Notified for acquisition under the provisions of the City of Mysore Improvement Regulation, and after hearing objections, if any, and consulting the concerned authorities awards were being passed To enable the construction of separate temples liberal compensation was being awarded and sites also given free of cost The available records in the above cases ~~is~~ are enclosed for favour of your perusal and return when done with
